DETAILED DAY WISE ITINERARY

We will start our journey from Chandigarh, meet our representative and we will proceed to Jibhi. It will be an overnight journey.

DAY 1

After an overnight journey, we will reach the beautiful village of Jibhi. Located in the Kullu district of Himachal Pradesh, Jibhi is an alluring village surrounded by natural beauty and gives you the taste of an offbeat destination. On reaching Jibhi, we will check in to the hotel and take some rest. Then we will go out and explore this beautiful hamlet. We will visit Jibhi Waterfall and trek to the nearby small town known as Mini

Thailand. After that we will return back to our hotel, have our dinner and an overnight stay.

DAY 2

The next morning after having breakfast, we will head towards one of the hidden gems and less crowded valleys in Himachal –Tirthan Valley. Tirthan Valley is an ideal destination for trekking, fishing, wildlife watching, camping, bonfires, photography and discovering under-explored hill villages. It's blessed with glacial springs, lush greenery and the serene Tirthan river. We will visit the Great Himalayan National Park. By the evening, we will reach our camps, have our dinner and an overnight stay.

DAY 3

The next day, wake up in the morning to beautiful mountain views. After having breakfast, we will drive to Jalori Pass. From Jalori Pass, we will start a short trek to Serolsar Lake, which is a beautiful marvel that quietly sits in the laps of nature. Surrounded by Alpine trees, the Serolsar Lake is held sacred by the locals and is also famous for the nearby temple dedicated to Goddess Budhi Nagin. After this, we will head back to Chandigarh with a suitcase full of memories.

CANCELLATIONS

If Organisers are forced to change or cancel a trip after it has started because of events and situations outside its control – “force majeure” – no compensation will be paid. Force Majeure includes, but is not limited to war or threat of war, lockdown, terrorist activity, strike, natural disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions, epidemics, and health risks. In case of cancellation of the planned trip due to force majeure, we will make every effort to provide clients with a similar alternative itinerary but do not guarantee it. Upon cancellation by Drunken Roads for any reasons other than force majeure, 100% compensation will be paid. In case of shortening of a trip that has already begun by Organisers. For any reasons other than force majeure, 100% compensation will be paid for every last day of the trip. There is always a slight chance of your itinerary being messed up because of a cancelled tour. The weather is very unpredictable, so one of the biggest consequences of that is the possibility of your booked tours being cancelled. The weather is unpredictable and even though winter weather can include lots of wind, snow, and ice, most tours run as scheduled. Yes, there are times when tours must be cancelled because of a storm, but that just comes with the experience in this trip, it is good to keep in mind that your tour can be cancelled.

MEASURES TAKEN BY TEAM DRUNKEN ROADS TO MAKE THIS TRIP AS SAFE AS POSSIBLE

- The property chosen by us is sanitized regularly and follows all Covid-19 safety norms.
- All trippers will have to provide Team Drunken Roads with a Covid negative certificate. This has to be Procured within 72 hours of the travel start date.
- All trippers are advised to carry their own hand sanitizers, and masks. Temperatures will be checked on arrival for basic symptom check.
